“ Dear family, There is not a childhood memory of our Harris family time together that does not include my dear Uncle Glen! From my earliest memories of hymn sings in the old farm house on Fork Ridge to the many visits to the house in Woodsfield where I can still see him studying his Bible at his desk near the staircase. As an adult I have many wonderful memories of all to brief visits to Ravenna, Minerva and Moundsville as I came "home" with my own family. I will always remember him as a kind and gentle man whose loving Christian spirit blessed my life. He always had a way of making me feel loved and important! It was a joy to have one last visit with him in July last year and to hear him talk of our family history. His love for God and His Holy Word permeated his life and his love for his family was a close second. Allen and I will never forget his sweet tears at our wedding and Allen has fond memories of the wonderful hospitality and fellowship he enjoyed when he held a meeting in Ravenna and stayed with your dad and mom. I am tearful as I write this and wish I could be with you all as you say your goodbyes and rejoice in his Homecoming in heaven .God Bless You All Mary Beth (Ashlock)

I cherish the phone call we had & Mary I am so grateful Grandpa had you in his life, you made him happy. I will never forget & will always have those special times shared together especially in younger years. So sorry I cannot be there but Grandpa knew my heart & how I felt. He will be missed by many and was such an inspiration to so many over all the years he had on this earth. Rest in peace my sweet grandfather, I know you will be smiling down on all of us. I love you always. Charity & family*

“ Jan and I were sorry to hear of the passing of our dear friend and brother in Christ, Glenn Harris. Our friendship goes back many years as we labored together in the kingdom of Christ. Glenn held a meeting at Wadsworth a few years ago while we were then serving as the minister here. The last time we saw Glenn and Mary was when I was serving the church in Cambridge as their interim preacher in 2011-12. They made a special trip to hear me preach one Sunday evening. Our sympathy is extended to Glenn's family whom we also consider as dear friends and fellow servants of the Lord. May God comfort you. Revelation 14:13.

“ Mary, Nieces and Nephews, Sorry we are unable to be with you to comfort and console each other but our thoughts and prayers are there. Glen was a wonderful brother and brother-in-law and we will miss him. However, as the apostle Paul wrote 'sorrow not even as others which have no hope', we look toward being reunited in that 'home of the soul'. Many years ago one of his favorite songs was, "The Christian's Welcome Home". Our love to all, Bud and Mary Laverne

“ May God comfort Glen's family Today, Tomorrow and Always.

We first met him and his family when they moved to Woodsfield many years ago. Over the recent years, have seen him more often, when he and Mary were visiting here in Barnesville for church meetings and family. He always was the same and greeted everyone with Christian love and kindness.

*God bless everyone.

“ Glen ,
You lived your life as GOD wants all of us to live on his earthly kingdom. Thank you for your example. Thank you for the many conversations about Christ, history, and everyday living. Thank you for making every effort to be at worship and thank you for your beautiful singing. You were an inspiration. You truly will be missed here on earth, but we await the day that all of us Christians will join you in Heaven and once again worship our Lord together. We love you brother!
