“ Uncle Bill and cousin Marianne, Kay and I are so saddened by the passing of Aunt Glenda. She was truly a saint on earth here among us. I have so, so many wonderful, precious memories of her growing up just out the ridge from her and Uncle Bill. Never once do I recall her having anything but kindness and a smile. During the summer break from school Glenda and Bill would always welcome me and my brothers and sisters into their home for a week's stay. It was usually on individual basis as well. Thinking back, I now realize just how much time she took with us and how much she did.
I absolutely just loved my Aunt Glenda!
May God bless the both of you!
