“ My Wife, Phyllis and I are so sorry to have missed the death and visitation of Gloria's Funeral. I had been a friend of Gloria's, through her husband Ken, since 1980. Ken and I knew each other through his position at the PPG Chemical Plant in New Martinsville, WV. Gloria was a lovely, Christian Woman! I know Ken must be missing her terribly, especially at this time of year. I also know that she is in heaven, and will not suffering any longer! I will miss her. Mr. & Mrs. Donald C. “ Mrs. McGuire was a wonderful example of a classy, “old school” teacher. I remember learning how to write in cursive because of how beautiful her writing was. I still teach my students how to write in cursive today. She was such a wonderful teacher!

“ Thoughts and prayers to Gloria's family! I first met Gloria at 4-H camp ... what fun we had ... first as a camper ... then as a counselor. “Gloria you were such a sweetheart everytime I came over, both you and Kenny. Your truly gonna be missed. My heart aches as it's been jus over a month I seen you last when I came over and helped care for you and Kenny. We went for a walk, talked about old times and even mentioned songs we both played on the piano. I just cant say enough words about you in just the little time I got to know you. Rest In Heaven Gloria. 🙏

“I sure will miss Gloria. She was caring but had an opinion on most things and wasn't afraid to share that opinion. She was a great cook too and I always looked forward to getting a note from her in the mail. Love and hugs to the family. God sure gained a saint.

“My sympathy and prayers at the loss of Gloria, a wonderful caring woman. I met her years ago when she came to the Wellness Center in the morning to exercise. She was most gracious and welcoming. I looked forward to the conversations that we shared. I missed her coming, but I understood how difficult it had become for her.

“ Gloria was teacher in grade school, I think she treated us a little differently than the other kids, as she was childhood friends of my dad's. She and my dad were born the same day. She will be surely missed. May all her memories comfort the family now and times to come.

“ The McGuire's are such a wonderful family and Gloria was no doubt the cornerstone. She was my fourth grade teacher and neighbor for many years. I don't know how she put up with Eric, Nathan and I every summer. We were always well fed and cared for. She was a sweet sweet lady. Deepest sympathy to the entire family.
