“ Dear Karen Goosman, I remember you from Moundsville High School and I wish to add my expression of sadness for the loss of your beloved Mother. You were a wonder of kindness, compassion and selfless gentility in the school days of our youth. I have never forgotten the sense of dignity and quiet sophistication which you brought to our classes. I know you will find comfort when you reflect on all the good work your Mother did for her Church. May the Peace of the Lord be always with you.
