“ My husband worked with Gordie back in the 1960s when the aluminum plant was Omal-Olin. They used to sing the Buck Owens song "They're Gonna Put Me in the Movies" as they went about their duties. Some one at work played a joke on Gordie by putting Lindberger Cheese on the manifold of his Cadillac. Although it has been years since my husband saw him, he still talks about their days at the plant and always ends with a smile.
