Betty Lou & Phil: Thank you so much. I understand that you were not able to be here. Im so glad you both got to see mom just a few months ago. And, thank you for the sandwich tray from you, Donnie & Maryjane. Mark & I plus our kids and grandkids enjoyed that very much. It was a great help. Love to you both. Brenda “ Grandma, words will never express how thankful I am to have had you in my life. You were an amazing woman, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. I'm so blessed to have had you to turn too. I'm thankful my children were able to know the love of their great-grandmother.

I will miss you forever and yet I take great comfort in the knowledge you have been reunited with papa.

I love you so much Grandma!!!

“ So very sorry to hear about Grace. What a sweetheart. She was mom's(Mary Oliver) roommate at Sistersville Center for a while. Dad would sit and listen to the football games with her. Very nice lady. Thoughts and prayers going up for Coach Batton, Vicki and family. The Millers and Ken Oliver
