“ A gentle hand, a loving heart, has ceased its earthly art.
Though pain resides where joy once grew, a mother's love shines through.
Her memory, a cherished light, will guide us through the darkest night.
We'll find her in the sun's warm ray, and miss her more with each passing day.
The world feels quieter now you've gone,
A light has faded, a day is done.
Your laughter, once a melody so sweet,
Is now an echo, bittersweet.
You were our sunshine, warm and bright,
Guiding us always, day and night.
Your love, a haven, strong and true,
A gentle presence, seeing us through.
We hold your hand, though you're not here,
In memories precious, held so dear.
The lessons you taught, the love you gave,
Forever in our hearts, we'll save.
Though grief may linger, a heavy shroud,
Your spirit shines, so bright and proud.
In every sunrise, we'll see your face,
A mother's love, an endless grace.
Rest now, dear mother, your journey's done,
Your love lives on, in everyone.
We'll carry you with us, in all we do,
And cherish the memories, forever true.
So now hold tight to the hand that leads,
For you're no longer bound by earthly needs.
