“ To my wonderful Estep cousins, I send my prayers that you are comforted and have peace in the knowledge that Greg is resting in the arms of Jesus, Whom Greg loved and followed faithfully. I have many precious memories of the times we visited with all of you in our early youth on the farm across the pasture from Grandma and Grandpa JR’s farm, and “learning” some country ways and humor from Greg and his other brothers and sister. It was so good to have the short visit with Greg, Gloria, and all of you at the reunion in Oglebay in 2018. My love and hugs to each of you!

“ We are so very sorry for your family’s loss. We send our sympathy and love to all the very large Estep Family with hopes that you’ll be surrounded by friends who care deeply and share your fondest memories. Greg will be missed by all who knew him. Small towns are like big families. ❤️ 🌻 💔 🏛️ 🌸 ❤️ 🦋.

“ To all my Estep cousins,
I am so saddened to lose another of our cousins. It seems only yesterday that I stayed overnight several times with my godmother, Beulah, and marveled at the morning routine in that household of boys (5 of them older than me, Mike just a year younger 😊). First, Aunt Beulah calling the role (repeatedly) followed by a huge breakfast (just like grandma’s house), then getting everyone on their way to school or chores (so she could work on a new dress for me !!).
Love and prayers for all of you,
Margaret Ann
