“ Ann, Denise, and David - I will always remember how your Dad and the entire family helped us begin the computerization of medical records at New Martinsville Health Care Center in the 1980's. You not only provided us with professional, caring, and responsive service, but you also brought us many laughs as you all tackled the job with passion and enthusiasm. God Bless Greg and bring him eternal comfort. May you all celebrate his love of family and personal attention to his customers.

*Sincerely,
Dr. George Couch
