“ I hope it's okay to share one of my favorite poems for these times.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.
By: Mary Elizabeth Frye*

*She will live on in her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren until you all meet again.
God can give comfort in your time of pain and hold on to each other.
God Bless you all.*

“ When my daughter Emily was 5 years old we lived with my mom for a short time and Emily would go to quilting classes with my mom. She loved going to these classes and seeing her "Old Friend" Lupe. I believe this is one reason Emily start quilting herself. Emily is now 16 years old and Lupe is still her Old Friend. Rest in peace Old Friend and thank you for having such an awesome influence on one of my daughters. I know she will never forget you, nor the times at Teresa's.

“ Very sorry to hear about the "matriarch" of the HEWITT family. I'm sure she was very proud of the adults her children and grandchildren became, and enjoyed life to the end. My thoughts and sympathy go out to all of the Hewitt's and Flores' families, along with the others who Mrs. Hewitt touched during her time on this earth.
