“ I worked with Harry for several years on behalf of the musicians union and just learned that he recently passed. We served as delegates to a multi-state conference and spent many conferences and conventions together. All of us loved working with him and we will miss him always. Doug Fisher, Columbus, Ohio

“ Kathy & Michael, we were shocked and saddened to read of Harry's death. We missed him at church on the 100th Anniversary celebration. He was a talented man and I'm sure Brass Unlimited will feel the loss as we all do.

Harry is at peace now, free from all pain and at home playing lead trumpet with the heavenly orchestra. You are in our thoughts and prayers and I know you keep fond and loving memories of Harry. Take care, God bless and we hope to see you at his memorial service.

“ I was horribly saddened when I heard of Mr. Sacco's death. Like many of his other students, he was one of the ones that inspired a love of music in me. I wish I could attend the services, but I live too far away. Know that my love, prayers, and good energy are being sent to the entire family.

“ Time goes by so quickly. It seems as though it was just yesterday we were playing together as brothers. There are too many good memories to even begin to salute Paul for being a great brother. There will always be a special place in our hearts for him and his family. We will miss him dearly, but he lives on in our hearts and through his family.

We know that with time the family will gradually learn to deal with this loss. We are thankful for terrific friends and family helping us deal with the pain. He is in a better place now and probably ready to teacher trumpet to another angel. God has a plan and we will forever be thankful to him for giving us each other to experience life together in his world.

Let us as family, pray for one another and do whatever it takes to get passed the grieving. Mom, (grandma) will need us and we will all always be there for her.

*Love,
Brother Bob & Wife Sharon*

“ Kathy, I will be in Rochester, N.Y. on Friday and won't be able to visit during calling hours. I didn't know Harry, I think I met him once. However the fact he was your sole mate tells me he was a wonderful man. Your testimony on Facebook was so inspiring and loving. It also had hints of you finding peace in your heart. May your memories, family and friends help carry you through this season of your life. Prayers going put to you.

I think the last time I saw Harry in person was at Ron Rose's service. He told me that I really should be using this thing called Facebook to keep in touch. Mr. Sacco always pushed me to do better when I was a student at Moundsville Junior High. He was not easily impressed. I feel like he has continued to push me to be a better person, especially as I have followed his cycling adventures on Facebook. And whenever I got a "like" from Mr. Sacco for one of my own cycling, running or beer tasting adventures I felt like I was getting the nod of approval from a man who knew how to live life. He will always be Mr. Sacco to me; a name of great respect and admiration.

“ Mr. Sacco was a wonderful man and great music teacher. I remember when he first taught at MJHS with Mr. Rose. I had A Band & B Band both as I was taking percussion and brass, and he taught B Band at the time. My heart and prayers go out to his family at this sad time.

“ Ron and I are both saddened and contented with Paul's passing. Sad because of the loss that we are all experiencing but happy because he has reached his final destination in life and is now united with our Lord and Savior.

Paul has touch all of us in different ways. We need to share and hold onto all the happy memories that we've shared with Paul, this is what keeps them alive in our hearts and in our minds, and they will continue to live on, through us.
