“ Harold and I began our friendship in the first grade at old Central School when he was a tiny little 6 year old boy who wore denim overalls. He was a quiet boy who treated everyone with kindness. He had no enemies! We went through our years of school together. His sense of humor was paramount during our junior high years; he made up silly songs and played them on his guitar while he stood in my front yard singing them to me. We would laugh so hard. He had a dry wit that always made me laugh. I am so sorry he is gone from this earth. I know his family will feel this loss for a long time...until we meet again in the arms of God. My prayers are with all of you.

“ I was very sorry to hear about Harold. He was one of the "Good Guy's" who I've known since early adulthood. Harold is best described by an old saying in the "sports" world . "If you lose your money, you have lost nothing. If you lose your health, you have lost something, but if you lose your CHARACTER, you have lost EVERYTHING." Harold always had characterMy thoughts and sympathy are with Harold's family and friends, and goodbye to one of my honest friends.
