“ Sorry to hear of Eddy's passing. We had many good times growing up in 50's.
I can still hear "Sweet Georgia Brown" on his record player, while playing basketball at his house. Mischief was always brewing in our neighborhood, with lots of kidding and fun. Many people have benefitted from his dedication to family, friends and sports.
Ed will be deeply missed leaving us with memories that will never fade.
My thoughts and prayers go out to his family.

“ So sorry to hear about EDDIE today. While I really got to know EDDIE as an adult, his death today reminds of the simpler times in Moundsville in the middle to late 60's and going to EAST END on summer nights to watch men's fast pitch softball. It's hard to believe how the social life of Moundsville for both adults and children revolved all summer long around those men who at 9pm every week night hit the diamond on the poorly lit field to either entertain us or give us an excuse to stay out after "street" lights. Those who remember those times can probably remember the Castle Club or CLOWNS lineups better than the 1971 Pirates.....I also will always respect ED for his passion for softball after he quit playing. He probably never even realized all the people he helped, both as athletes and being a better person. My thoughts and sympathy go out to all his family members I'm sure he'll be missed by many and remembered by all the lives he touched during his time on the earth.
