“ I was shocked & saddened when Judy called & told me Lynn had past. Remembering back to high school Lynn's smile was a breath of fresh air...as a therapist myself I think how ironic she became a respiratory therapist. Her giggle would always make you laugh too. I remember as freshmen in Mrs. Baldwin's class Lynn would drive Mrs. Baldwin crazy because she couldn't stop smiling & giggling. I pray you all turn to God & not away. Let Him embrace you, seek His guidance, & treasure the memories Lynn has given you...you each have those very special ones. The place Lynn has filled in your heart can never be taken away. She's so special & in time we will be re-united with her. I pray the kids rely on each other & know it's OK to talk to their Mom & talk about her, talk to their Dad too. You all need each other. Love on another. So many are praying for your family. Sincerely, Kim Blackwell & family

“ Cheryl, Was such a shock to everyone especially since 8 of us girls from MMH just saw her in Galipolis on Friday for respiratory conference. It was so good to see her since I didn't see her much anymore since working with her in Belpre. Will cherish her ability to make every day at work a sunny one. Memories of our roadtrips to Charleston with you and the girls Cheryl will always be remembered. She showed me pictures of Yale, Maddie and Lily. Can't believe how they have grown-beautiful memories left on earth from her. Praying for all.

“ For Lynns husband, family and beautiful children. I met Lynn in respiratory school and we were the best of friends and were inseparable throught our time there. She came every single day with her little bag of dry cereal that she called her breakfast, lunch or dinner. :) I remember her bringing little yale to my house later on and she couldnt wait to show me how this tiny little guy with the big giant helmet on could ride his bike. She was so very proud of him and you knew just just lived to be a mother and wife. I never got to meet your little girls or your husband but I know they have lost a angle and I am so sad you had to leave this earth. Very few people in this world can make you smile every time you walked in a room. I love you friend and god bless your family.

“ Like so many others, I was shocked and saddened to learn that Lynn had passed away. Though it has been over 20 years since we were all in school cheering together, I can still hear her laughter and see her big smile as if it were yesterday.
