I met Hazel 25 years ago. I also new her husband Bill. Wonderful lady. She was always a very loving person she always said I was one of the family even though we were not related she said I was family. One memory I have was she had me replace the ruff on her shed she parked her Mercedes in. She told me to make good and sure it didn't leak . She loved to pick and laugh. Her and mr Clyburn introduced me to butter milk and cornbread. Lol . I still have it to this day. I will always remember what a spirit she had. I am sorry for your loss. I pray her and mr Bill are having a glass of butter milk and cornbread.

God Is good.

Sincerely

Bill Miller. Wanda's nephew.

“ Will always cherish the happy memories of visiting my aunt home in Moundsville and I'm sure Alan and Bonnie will miss her very much as they look back on their life with their mother. In their hour of grief, I'm sure that the footprints in the sand is God carrying them thru their grief. I will light a candle for you. Your loving cousin Winnona

“ Loved Hazel Clyburn, loved her feisty attitude. Loved her sharp wit. Loved her sense of adventure and love of travel. She has now taken her last and most important trip. God needed a special angel and he called Hazel. I truly believe we will meet again in the afterlife. Until then we celebrate her life. That's what she would have wanted. Will be missed by all who crossed her path. ❤️ Michele & Paige Whorton
