“ My heart goes out to Heather and her Family. Heather and I were friends growing up in Warwood and ended up working together in Columbus at a child care center. Faith and my daughter Sarah were the same age and spent time together in Columbus. Heather was an incredible person and a wonderful teacher. I Saw her over the summer at baseball games and she always had that beautiful smile on her face. My thoughts and prayers go out to Heather and her family. 🙏❤️

“ My sincere condolences to Heather's family. I only met her a few times but she is my daughter, Anita Sheleks best friend. Heather and Anita and their families spent a lot of time together and Anita never went a time that we spoke talking about her. Thank you Heather for bringing such joy and love into my daughters life. I know you will be sorely missed. It's not for us to understand why such a beautiful soul would be taken so young, but God has a reason for His timing. I do know how much you were loved by all your family and friends. The world will be a sadder place without you in it.
