

Helen Mae Henthorn

August 25, 1935 - October 29, 2017

Helen Mae Henthorn, 82, of Canonsburg, PA, departed from a long life of serving others on October 29, 2017, following a brief illness.

Helen was born August 25, 1935, in Hannibal, Ohio, the daughter of the late Albert and Ida Thomas Shook. After graduating from Magnolia High School in 1953, she attended nursing school in Cincinnati before serving as a nurse's aide at New Martinsville Hospital. In 1982, she earned an Associate's Degree in Nursing and moved to Weston, West Virginia, where she continued her life's work caring for patients and their families, working the evening shift at Stonewall Jackson Memorial Hospital for more than two decades.

Inspired by her faith, she devoted her entire life to the needs of others, including her children, mother, and countless hospital patients. Motherhood came naturally to her, and was a life role that she both cherished and fulfilled. Her impact will be everlasting.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased in death by her former husbands, Chuck Sidell and Elmer Henthorn, as well as her sister, Agnes (Shook) Litman, and her infant brother, Robert Shook. She is survived by three sons, Steve Sidell of Bristol, TN, Jeff Sidell (Beverly) of New Martinsville, and Greg Henthorn (Stephanie) of Morgantown; and two daughters, Dede Coffield (Kurt) of Washington, PA, and Kim Lapp (Brian) of Washington, PA. She is also survived by 11 grandchildren and two great-grandsons.
