“ Dear Hill Family,I extend my deepest sympathy to you and your family at this trying time. Scott,I'll never forget our great times playing basketball,tennis and golf together when I was a young man. I had so much fun with you. I remember all of you fondly. Wish I could say something to take away the pain but time will have to do that. Just remember all the good times.Please contact me if I can ever help you in any way.God Bless,Michael"Flash"Belcher

“ It was my great privilege and blessing that Kendall Hill was my father-in-law for 40 years. He was wonderful in that role, as well as a generous and caring grandfather to our son. Part of him lives on in us, and we can find comfort in our many happy, joyous memories of times spent with him. I think one of the last words he said to me was "Delicious! Delicious!!" after a meal I had prepared for him recently. Such a happy sound!
