“ Dear June - I'm afraid I do not recall who you are. I am John's son, Charlie. I happened to check the online obituary to find your kind words for my father and mother. I do so appreciate them and I will share them with my mom. Many thanks and God Bless, Charlie

“ Dear Theresa & family, So sad to hear about John's passing. I don't believe I had ever seen him without a smile on his face. His (and your) kindness will not be forgotten as I so appreciated the ongoing encouragement you both provided my own mother before she passed. May you be comforted and rejoice that God's child has come Home and will now live and reign with Him through all eternity.
