“ My husband and I met Irene four years ago while searching for a home, and she has made an everlasting impact on us both. She was one of the kindest, most compassionate people I've had the pleasure of meeting. Irene quickly became a friend and someone we both trusted. Even though we made the difficult decision to end our home search in Pittsburgh and look out of state, Irene would occasionally check in on us to wish us well. She will be deeply missed and we hope she is at peace.
