“ So sorry for your loss! As our family also lost a little one (McKennah) we know exactly what you are going through. keep her memory close to your heart and know that everytime you see a butterfly that is her paying you a visit! So it seemed that the little caterpillar thought her life was over until she emerged as a beautiful butterfly. This is very hard to endure and your asking why and saying wow what happened and it was so fast. but there is no reason and no way you could have changed this and there was nothing you did wrong! Everything is exactly the way its meant to be and you will eventually understand and except what has happened! So just imagine she is in heaven with our father playing with my Grand baby and baby puppies and animals we have lost over the years. Heaven has truly gained another beautiful angel of ours! My deepest sympathy is with you and your family! Blessing to you all!! All my love Ginnifer (Morford) and Tom Bluthardt if you need to talk to someone who has been in your shoes please feel free to contact me or my daughter Ginna Morford No one knows the feeling of loosing a child until you experience it
