“ cruising I am saddened to hear of Dicky's passing. We were best buds back in the late 50's and early 60's before I left Moundsville due to the Army. We shared great times in his 57 Chevy convertible cruising after our dates were back in the house. People still are in awe when I tell them of the 45 rpm record player that was installed just above the hump. We worked side by side for many teenage years in different gas stations... he in his family's Gulf station and me for "Windy" Rulong's Texaco. Those were fun times and I will cherish them always. Miss you my friend.

“ My dad was a great cowboy but he was the best dad he taught me so many things how to work hard, how to respect other people and most of all myself, if you get thrown off get right back on and much more. One of my favorite things he used to say was "It isn't worth doing unless you do it right"

“ I will always remember Dick with fondness and respect. Our kids grew up together and all of us spent many hours practicing the barrels in the ring and going on trail rides all over Marshall County. He was always willing to help start someone riding and teach them to respect the horse. This cowboy will be missed.

“ I'll never forget the day uncle Dickie took time out of his busy schedule to take us in the back of his pick-up to his field full of beautiful horses and I thought "this is heaven on earth" he even saddled one up for us to ride. Dickie was one of the strongest men I ever knew he worked and fought til the very end, he never made it to Yellow Stone, but I like to think he's got the best view now. Love You Uncle Dickie, Jill
