“ Many years ago after my dad passed away Jack became like a second dad to me. It was just before my 13th birthday I had gotten some money and I wanted a timex watch well Jack and Ann took mom and me Marietta but could not find what I wanted so he said well if we can't find it here we will go to Parkersburg. That was the first time I had ever been there. I got my watch still have today. I have several great memories of this wonderfully ornery man. He loved his family and God with His whole heart. R.I.P Love you always.

“ To say goodbye is never easy, no one wants it, no one is ever fully prepared. It sucks but when you think about it really it's not goodbye it's more of a "Catch ya later" Jack was such an ornery loving man & had an heart of gold. Narrows Run won't be the same without him anymore, I remember him always waving when we would blow the horn when we would go by. So Jack now you can be in peace & no more pain. You're always be poppa Jack to me :) I love ya you ornery guy :D so "catch ya later"
