“ Marsha, Joey and family, we were sorry to hear of JR's passing. We had so much fun during our Scouting days with Troop 78. I remember him frying up French fries at the Scout picnic. He reached out to me when Larry died a few years ago. Which was very kind. We will keep him in our prayers as well as you.

“JR To the Rescue”
My daughter Maria called my wife and I
Distressed on being locked out of her house.
It was on a weekend, and Nobody was open.
Except JR that is!! He came right away to my daughter’s house with his tools at hand and saved the day!!
Didn’t charge us anything, and told us to Pass it on.... A Memory our family will never forget.
Thanks J.R. May you rest in Peace my friend.
Condolences to Marsha and family.
