“ Uncle Jim, I believe that you have been greeted in Heaven by those who went before you. I can see you being met by Jones, Uncle Mike, my Dad and David, all in deer hunting gear, ready to head out with you for a good old fashioned Thanksgiving Deer Hunt. The men are smiling and your eyes are twinkling with joy, health, youth, happiness, peace and endless love. You, my dear Jimmy, are one in a million. You always had the kindest things to say about my Dad, who loved you very much. I will miss your stories and sharing of our family history. Until we meet again, know that you are loved and cherished, forever. Blessings~ your niece, Becca

Becky, Thank you for such a touching and beautiful sentiment in memory of Jim. It was written so eloquently. Steve was just talking yesterday about the good times he had deer hunting on the farm with his Dad, uncles, and cousins. Describing it exactly like what you wrote! So good to hear from you. Love Steve and Jane.
