“ Jamie I remember when I first met u thru kapriel and Delia they were so close we became instant friends and always stay that way. I remember coming out to your house on the ridge you did the ink on my neck and kapriel and Delia we're always so close Then Delia passed away this year and you were there for me we laughed we cried it was crazy then I ended up on life support you were a few doors down on life support. No matter what his life is threw at us we've always been there for each other and I thank God for that Jamie you are beautiful angel now spread your wings honey and fly I'm sure my daughters are there to meet you until we meet again my friend rest in peace love you to heaven and back
