“ Tara and Beth,

I was reading the Times Leader online the other day and noticed your grandmother's obituary. I am very sorry to hear of her passing. I know both of you spoke very highly of her. I will be praying for both of you and your families. May God heal your hearts and time heal your pain.

*Love,

“ words can not express the pain I feel in my heart right now I lost my best friend in the whole entire world my grandmother was like a mother to me she had instilled the good in me taught me things that no one else could always was there for me had the right things to say I spent every weekend I could with my gandy every summer vacation words can not explain how empty I am without you but as she always told me you have to keep a smile on your face and a melody in your heart and keep on trucking. I know that we will meet again and to my family that I may not see or talk to im sorry for your loss as well may god be with us all as we celebrate that wonderful life she lived and many happy memories she has embraced us with
