“ Nancy and Jay's Family,

Jay was a true Viking. He was incredibly proud of his Viking heritage and ties to Warwood. Our reunions were always enriched by his presence and reminiscences. One of my favorite Jay stories involved him enlisting me to join him late at night on Riley Hill Road, sitting in the woods along the run and in a swamp, with him trying to record, on a primitive tape recorder, the sounds of frogs chirping for some Sis Lynch Thespians play sound effect. At some point I said, "Jay, this is stupid. This isn't working." To which he responded, "Yeah you're right, but it's lots of fun." That was Jay. Lot's of fun.

Please know we all share in your loss.
