“ To the Simms family,

Sorry about Jeff. I remember first getting to know Jeff when we worked at Hinerman Brothers in the early 70's. He was anything but boring. He made getting paid $1.25. an hour entertaining. My thoughts and sympathy go out to all of his family and many friends.

To the Simms Family, And especially Mark and Cole, I am deeply sorry to hear of Jeff's passing. I've never met Jeff's children nor Brad, but remember very happy times with the brothers. Big hug to Mark. May Jeff rest in peace, and never suffer again. Prayers, Ruby and Mike Shutler
