“ Dear RoseAnn and all,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this sad time. As a little girl, watching the parade in Sardis, to a teacher at Hannibal Elementary for Cory and Toby, to a volunteer at the Historical Society coming in to office after the Veteran's Board Meetings, I just always hoped I got to see Jimmy Luikart. His smile topped with that awesome mustache never failed to cheer me up. He has been such a County Treasure and will be greatly missed.

Rose Ann & family, so sorry for your loss. We will be praying for peace & comfort.

I can remember when he worked for my dad (John Long). Dad always had good things to say about him. My son Adam played football & ran track for River & enjoy having Jimmie as a mentor. He would ask how Is was doing everytime I saw him. He was always encouraging the kids.
