PS

“ Pap... where do I start. You were one of my favorite people. I'm going to miss our Friday night wine nights,(I think he thought every day was Friday 😊) movie watching, and most of all the endless stories and laughter. I've tried my best at holding back my feelings but I know this is what you've wanted for quite some time. I can here you say “ what in the hell (that's a nicer word) does he keep me around for, I feel I've done what I was put here to do.” We will continue our yearly celebration for grandmas birthday tomorrow. Just as we would be doing if you were here with us. As that's what you wanted every year. I wish I had more time with you. You are missed so much already. I know you'll always be in my heart. Rip Pap💙

“ Pap I am so sad to see you go, but I am thankful that you get to be reunited with the love of your life again. Just in time for grandma's birthday she probably was so glad to welcome you into her arms again what a special present for her but sad for all of us but we can find peace in knowing you are with her now. I love you so much Pap. I will never forget my summers with you and grandma when I was younger. Your orneriness lives on into your grandchildren great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.
