“ My father, Ray Bowers, and I of Philippi, WV were very sad to hear of Joe's passing. Ray played basketball at AB after the war with Joe and his brothers and they remained great friends thru the years. I remember talking to Joe at an AB basketball game 3 or 4 years ago and he told me to tell Ray to get out of the house some and come to a game. Dad always said he was one of the best athletes he ever knew. Bill Bowers

“ I think my father and Mr. Pelaez were cut from the same cloth. His family values and work ethic, mirrored my own upbringing. How wonderful, Jody, that you were able to be here for the last couple years of his life. I know he was happy to have you here. Celebrate the wonderful, fruitful life he experienced as I am sure he would not want you to mourn. I am sorry I will not be able to be there today, but I will be in touch.

“ Jody, You and your family are in my prayers asking Him to embrace each of you and bestow His peace and His comfort. Jody, your Dad and your Uncle Floats were inordinately patient with me. When I switched from St. Francis Xavier to Moundsville Junior High after 7th grade... leaving an environment as structured as St. Francis for the "freedoms" of MJHS, my study habits and grades started to slip. Your Dad knew I grew up without a father so he took license to 'gently' jerk a knot in my shorts. <chuckle> As time went on, he would come up behind me, put his arm around my shoulder and ask me what I wanted to do with my life. I'd tell him... but add I'd never be able to achieve this or that. He'd look at me with a furrowed brow and firmly ask, "Why not? I think you can. Are you going to tell me you're smarter than I am or know more than me?" I'd immediately answer, "No sir!" Coach was always a source of encouragement, inspiration and motivation. He helped me believe in me. As I said earlier, he was one of my "angels on earth" .. without whom I would not have achieved what little I have. He convinced me that where one begins has absolutely nothing to do with where one ultimately ends up. He made me feel empowered to determine my destiny. I thank God for allowing my life's path to cross with that of Coach Joe Palaez. I'm especially grateful that through Facebook, I was able to relay my deep and heartfelt appreciation to Coach first through Jan and later, you. If only every American educator was the blessing that Joe Palaez was! He'll live on in the hearts of so, so many. I firmly believe a man's (or woman's) greatest legacy is the positive impact they have on the lives of others while here on earth. Joe Palaez leaves behind a Platinum legacy as he no doubt now walks Heaven's streets of gold. God bless you Coach. I pray for your eternal peace and great reward for all the good you did on this earth. See you soon and I look forward to giving you a bear hug when I'm called home.

“ Jody and Joel:

I was deeply saddened to hear of your father's passing. He was one of the very few men in our area that my Dad always referred to as a "good man". He didn't use that term lightly. I can still remember the day I wore my Dad's old "Zincs" basketball jersey, from when he played for the smelter team, to school. Your Dad got the biggest smile on his face! I always felt as if he and your uncle Floats took care of me in school, because I was one of the Spaniards. He will be missed by many. May you find peace in the loving memories of your Dad.

“ Very sorry to hear of Mr. Pelaez's passing. One of the lasting memories of my youth was as a 7th grader following the exploits of Coach Pelaez's 1966 Moundsville Trojans, led by Bob Hummel, in their quest for a state championship. They may have fallen short to Dunbar High, but I don't think there's a basketball fan over 55 in Marshall County who doesn't remember the "HOOSIERS"-like run or has heard someone talk about it. Mr. Pelaez was definately one of "Life's Good Guys" by any standards, who touched many lives and made this small part of the earth a better place then when he got here.

I will always remember him, Floats Pelaez, and Chick Henderson every Friday night chaperoning dances in the old gym at Moundsville Jr. High for the students of MJHS.
