“ Dear Janie, My mother told me about John's Passing. I am sure this is a tremendous loss for you. The last time I saw John was here in Florida. I had just moved here and our mothers were taking a trip together. He lived just a few miles from me so we visited with him. Hoping that your memories will bring you comfort. Peace be with you. Connie Pack Owen

“ Goodbye to my dearest friend and brother of 61 years. Your friendship meant more to me than anyone could ever know. Friends through grade school, scouts, and adult life. From Ohio, Louisiana, and Florida. You came to Florida in 1987 to join the CMT family and quickly became a very important contributor. You lived with us for 3 years before you bought your own home. Our children called you Uncle John as you watched them grow up. My family was your family. My friends were your friends, especially Dan Downs who lived with you while he was here in Florida to help us with our ever growing business. He too considered you a brother. I was there when you met the love of your life Susan. I stood beside you at your wedding just as you stood beside me at mine. I was there when you fell ill and our lives were changed forever. Susan was right beside you until the end. You will forever be my friend and brother. You will be missed.

Until we meet again.

Your Friend,

Charles E. Freeman
