Jonathan John (JJ) Johnson left this world too soon on Sunday, September 3rd, 2017, surrounded by family who loved him dearly.

He was born on January 9th, 1970 to Irvin B. Johnson and Mary Jean (Williamson).

He was the oldest of five children and a fiercely loyal brother. He graduated from Mosley High School in 1988. He served in the U.S. Army as a saxophone player and a tank mechanic. After returning to Florida, he worked as a corrections officer and security at Spinnaker. He was a technician at Certainteed Gypsum in Moundsville, WV. He was a member of the Moose Lodge 931 in New Martinsville, WV.

He is preceded in death by his dad, Irvin B. Johnson.

He leaves behind, heartbroken; his mother, Mary Jean Johnson; his brothers, David (Sue )Johnson of Lynn Haven, FL and Daniel (Holly) Johnson of Southport, FL; and his sisters, Veronica ((Mike) Daugherty of New Martinsville, WV and Monica (Larry) Page of Southport, FL. He also leaves behind his fishing buddies (nieces and nephews) Bobby Johnson, Billy (Ashley) Johnson, Katie Brentlinger, Austin Johnson, Hamlet Hernandez, Molly Daugherty and Matthew Daugherty. He was always there for those that needed him and he is truly missed. His ashes will be spread in Florida and West Virginia. In lieu of flowers the family requests that you take someone
