

Jones, Wilbur

November 4, 2009

Jones, Wilbur "Cub", 84, of Jones Lane, Sardis, Ohio, died Wednesday, November 4, 2009 in New Martinsville, WV.

He was born April 23, 1925 in Sardis, a son of the late Fred and Eva (Kate) Hayes Jones.

He was a retired machinist for General Motors Corporation; and a Jackson Township Trustee with many years of service.

Cub was a member of the American Legion Post 760, Hannibal, Ohio; VFW Post 9930, Duffy, Ohio; Military Order of the Purple Heart; DAV; Combat Infantrymen's Association; a U.S. Army combat veteran of WWII, having fought for his country in the South Pacific Theater, and the recipient of both the Oak Leaf Cluster Purple Heart and Bronze Star; and a Protestant by faith. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a son, Denver Jones; three brothers, Harris, Harold and Darrell Jones; and a sister, Dorothy Frieden.

Survivors include his wife of 50 years, Donna Jones; a son, Eric Jones of Sardis; three daughters, Sandra (Alex) Kon of Hudson, Ohio, Sheri Jones and Erin (Scott) Boggs, both of Sardis; two brothers, Dale (Norma) Jones of Ravenna, Ohio and Donald (Lila) Jones of Clarington, Ohio; three sisters, Alberta (Lester) Lohri, Betty Howell and Delores (Larry) Romick, all of Sardis; and three grandchildren, Cody Jones, Shannon Jones and Alex Kon.

Family will receive friends on Saturday from 2-9pm at Grisell Funeral Home, 37234 Mound Street, Sardis, where funeral services will be held on Sunday at 1:00pm with Minister Keith Jones officiating.

Interment in Mount Olive Cemetery, Sardis, Ohio where the American Legion Post 760 will conduct military graveside services.