Aunt Hilda, Larry Joe and famiy, I have so many good memories as a young child of Uncle Joe, the Sundays we spent at Grandma and Grandpap Blake's, the holiday' s when we are were there together, the laughter, playing with my cousins. I will always remember those days. I will always remember the day that we went on the rhino ride to their homeplace with Uncle Joe and Dad. He enjoyed that day, and I am so glad I was there with them. He and Dad laughed that day and of course, argued like brothers do about childhood memories.It was a fun time. I will remember the days, I stayed with you going to beauty college and the day I was putting potatoes on to cook, and Uncle Joe said, "I like salt in my potatoes while they were cooking." I had cooked something before and left salt out. It was too funny He is with his loved ones that passed before him, with no pain, and is with the Lord Jesus. He fought in WW II, and we have freedom because of him and his comrades. It amazed me when I found out he was in the war. He never mentioned it. That is another reason to love him. He will be missed by the entire Blake family. Uncle Joe was always there, and it is going to be hard not having him with us. Love to all of you all.

“ Hilda,
Thinking of you and your family this day. I can't be with you, I will be out of town tending to my father. Joe was a gift to our community, so helpful over the years. Many things could not have been accomplished without his quiet leadership and can do attitude. He will be missed greatly. Charlotte Blake
