“ Dylan used to sit in church in the pew in front of us. He never wanted to sit with us, he was focused. He was always smiling or asking a question. His laugh was as unique as Dylan. We are so sorry for the family's loss but get peace in remembering that Dylan is smiling and asking questions in heaven.

“ I met Dylan at St . Paul Lutheran church when he attended our Amazing Grace Bible school day camp . He was an amazing child !!! That was I believe the first time he learned about God !! He was so so excited he insisted he had to be Baptized that week and it couldn't wait a minute longer . He did get Baptized that week , and I'm never seen anyone so excited before . I thing he was 10 feet tall that day . I gave him a Bible from the church , and we didn't see him for awhile , when he came back , he came to see me and was telling all the stories he'd read in his Bible . Dylan said he'd read the entire Bible and was starting all over !! He was so excited . he did start Confirmation class but he never finished for some reason . When he did come to church , he always sat in the very first row on the left all alone . Like hot stuff and very proud !!! , He was indeed one very extra special child !!!
If you ever want to talk , I'm here , my email address is maryonyxma g@hotmail.com and then I'll give you my number !!! God bless you and please know our loving Lord has his arms around you all holding you all !!! God bless Mary Maguire

“ I went to school with Dylan for a couple years at Bridgeport. He was nice kid. I was somewhat close with him. Then when he left he drifted apart. He was funny and kind. He will never be forgotten. Prayers for the family❤️🙏 -Erica Grim
