“ My sympathy to the family at this sad time. I worked with Joe at Riesbecks in the early seventies. He was a load of fun then as he seems to be now. What a sad day. RIP my friend.

“ Joe was such a nice guy. He was always so encouraging to me. I will miss his friendliness, kindness, and cheerful attitude. As he passed my classroom, he always waved or said hello. My students remember his keys jingling as he passed the classrooms. My heart and prayers go out to his wonderful wife and his family. RIP Joe. You earned your wings. Love, Kaye
