“ JIM, we had a wonderful talk today and I learned of your mom's passing. I'm very sorry. I have many memories talking to her in the Great house on the corner. She was lively, fun, interesting, brilliant - and resilient (being your mother). I'll call you again soon.

“ I will miss Jo and so will Marge. I loved sitting and talking with her and Marge on the chairs outside of Elison. She was always in a good mood and was pleasant to be with.

“ Jim, Rob and TC,
I am so sorry for your loss. She was a great person and had the biggest heart.
I have so many memories of Jo. I would go visit her at her home. We talked a lot about Susan after the wreck. Also, we talked a lot about what was going on with me. She was great to talk to. She was so caring. Then I taught TC and we talked a lot about him and how he was doing. It was an honor to tutor him as needed after school. I did this for free for all of my students. It was also an honor to teach Rob. She will be missed. I loved seeing her when she picked up the free meals at the church for the volunteer workers at the Salvation Army. She would run to me when she saw me. Also, she would listen to me like the great mother that she was. She was also a great friend.

My second Mother..The Mother of the neighborhood. Always giving to all the kids and always made each of us feel special. So many memories and always encouraging. Picked us up when we were down and was as excited as we were of our successes. May God put His comforting arms around our family. We will meet again. 🙏🌸❤️

New Martinsville is missing a shining light. Thankfully, Jo's example of caring and joy will still be here. Her yard hosted an almost non-stop neighborhood ball game for many years. It was always a treat to see her.
Look for the helpers. Jo was that and more!

Jo Fauber was the very best woman on the planet. She was always there when you needed anything. She was there for my Mother when times were good or bad. I have a lifetime of Blessings and long talks with her about several things. Jo was a true bright light in the world. She was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, friend to everyone, and the gift that you need in life each day to make your life better. WOW!!!!!! To have walked through life with Jo Fauber, was a treasure of pure joy, kindness, laughter, honesty, caring, love, adventure, and everything you would want under your Christmas tree, not only during Christmas, but each day. A positive woman for me, all of my life. I am thankful to have had the complete joy and honor of knowing her. To have Jo Fauber in your life, is knowing what the happiness of Heaven will be for us. I will see her again. I know she and my Mom, are having a blast. She is also having the complete joy of being with Jim and Susan. A reunion for everyone with the Glory of GOD. Thank you Jo for all the years of pure fun and adventure. A wonderful life. David
