“ We will always remember Rick, Josie, and their son, Rick. Here is one of our favorite pictures of Rick and Josie. Anthony, thinking of you and your family.

“ In 1966 the neighborhood was full of kids. All ages. Her husband Rick was a fun loving dad. Josie was too. But she was the boss. They were loving and happy to have a great son in Ricky. On warm summer nights. The best thing going on was on their driveway. 8mm films of Disney . Woody woodpecker and The 3 Stooges. What fun .. My mother Jean and Josie were always talking on the phone or out in the street every day. Her favorite candy was Sugar Daddy pops. Sweets for the sweet. My prayers go out to the family at this sorrowful time. May God be with you and give you strength.

“ I an remember Josie working out in the yard with Rick and Ricky, getting down and looking at the hedges, as they were trimming them, saying "now you need to get those straight!" She was measuring them haha. She had the greatest sense of humor. Lots of funny stories. She would have the funniest facial expressions when she was telling a story. She was my grandma's dear friend. Gams would say, "when I get depressed I would just call Josie, and in no time, she would have me laughing." She and I adopted each other, and I loved her like my own mother. We had some good times together, lots of laughs. i have been in her life since I was 5 years old. 55 years is a long time. i feel very blessed to have been a part of this family. I love and miss her already. my deepest sympathy to Anthony and his family in this time of sorrow.
