“ Aunt Joyce was the best Great Aunt anyone could ever want. I remember one time when I was pretty young I wanted this Barbie with auburn hair and my mom couldn't afford it or even afford to buy us kids much for Christmas that year anyways... And Aunt Joyce bought me that doll for Christmas that year and bought us kids so many gifts but even though I loved all the gifts that she had bought and I was so thankful for her and for all the gifts it was at the moment that I opened up my Barbie with auburn hair that my entire year not just my Christmas had been made... I also remember that growing up my family was pretty poor and my parents really only seemed to care about going out to the bar every weekend instead of buying us kids groceries and food... Well I would walk up to pink door when it was on 4th street and I would tell my Aunt Joyce "Aunt Joyce I'm hungry and mom and dad are too busy drinking to care" and she would always ask me "baby what do u want" and she would feed me and my brother and sister... Aunt Joyce was truly the greatest aunt ever ... She was so kind... And her smile and laugh were so infectious... I know my little girl just absolutely loved her Aunt Joyce... As did !!!! Aunt Joyce Rest Easy you are so missed and tell grandma pappy uncle gene and uncle Robbie I love and miss them too... I love you Aunt Joyce

Joyce was such a wonderful person. Her heart was in the right place when it came to people and would try to help anyone if she could. Prayers for her family and dear friends. She is going to be missed by many who knew her, but always remembered by the smile on her face when you met her. Taken to early in life. May she rest in peace.

“ So sorry to hear about JOYCE. When I think of her , the often used, sports term "throwback" comes to mind. JOYCE was a small business owner who was a "throwback" to earlier generations before franchises became the norm, and people put their body and soul into their businesses, caring more about her customers and employees than some cared about themselves. Her "old school" work ethics was something for all of us to admire. My thoughts and sympathy go out to Bill, Kevin, and the rest of her family and many friends. Good bye to the Pink Door Pizza LADY

So sorry to hear about Joyce's passing. I met her on the ball field watching kids play ball years ago. We started talking, I didn't know she owned Pink Door for 5 more years cause we always had delivery. One night I went in person and there was the smiling face. I got my pizza and headed out in the parking lot some guy hit me wrapping the car door around my leg while I was getting into my car with pizza in hand. Joyce called an ambulance and had a driver from her shop meet my now ex husband with our child then as if that was not enough made me a new pizza and delivered it to the hospital herself. She had a heart of gold and a beautiful smile. Prayers to all her family for comfort. She will be missed

“ This news saddens me greatly. Joyce had a heart of gold....she was an ideal small business owner. Her personality was the brightest quality that lit up her friendly face! Our retiree PPG Industries office group — the OREOS — spent many a time dining at Pink Door Pizza on Lafayette Avenue. And all of us can testify to her skills as a baker! Joyce always delivered a plate of “goodie” desserts to our group. I’ve stopped in by myself several times — wanting to see Joyce and enjoy one of those delicious Philly Steak sandwiches. Joyce was friendly, always, even though the kitchen was busy. Rest In Peace, dear “Pink Door” friend. If the restaurant closes, it will be missed very much for us here in Moundsville...but no way close to not seeing Joyce again greeting us with that big smile! ❤️❤️❤️
