“ I am so very very deeply sorry to hear the passing of Joyce. I have many memories from my high school years that involve her and her family... and I vividly remember the deep love she has for her boys. I remember driving her crazy over and over again by calling the house repeatedly as a teenager.... Lol ... she was a good sport.... lol. Although it's been 20+ years, I know how proud she is (and always will be) of what great men (Jeremy and Jason) she raised, and the beautiful home she created with Norm. My thoughts and prayers to the entire Shively and Bradcovich families.
