“ Although I initially knew Judy as the mother of one my classmates, I did not truly appreciate what a special lady she was until several years later. My grandma was a resident of the Cameron Nursing and Rehab Home for three years after being diagnosed with Stage IV breast cancer. She did not have a particularly good quality of life after that diagnosis as one of the main areas to which the cancer had spread was her bones. She literally could not turn over in bed without breaking something. So she was forced to lie on her back in a bed, day in and day out, for many months till God took her home. Judy showed herself to be one of God's special angels while still living on this earth when it came to caring for my grandma. She always had such a cheery attitude and caring manner. My grandma was quite fond of her because she always treated her so well. I remember when Grandma was dying, she was scared. Judy came in the room and asked her what she was gonna say to God when she got to Heaven and if she was ready for the party. I hope Grandma got to see her when she made her arrival 20 years later.
