“ Dear Sue, Dale & “kids”,
It’s been many years but I know Judy’s smile & laugh still did the same thing...make those around her feel happy. So many memories from years gone by when I was at Lee& Deb’s then going to her home. I remember her making over LeeAnne when she was little & Walker asking if he could carry her book bag when she started school. Judy just smiled & laughed.
She truly shared kindness with everyone she met. I’m praying peace, comfort & strength as you go through this tremendous heartbreak.
Sue, I pray you feel a loving embrace because there’s nothing greater than a Mother’s love.
Prayers & Love,

“ Over the last years Judy and I had become friends. We talked often in Walmart . . Then we started messaging one another on FB messenger . I will miss you my friend. I already do. To her husband Dale and her Mother , children and grandchildren may you know that others are thinking of you . You are all in my thoughts and prayers. She was one of the GOOD ONES.
