“ Karen and I were first cousins. When we were younger we saw more of each other and even went to the same school. When we grew older I attended Karen's baby shower along with my Mom (Marie Kimple). I won a prize for one of the games we played, and that gift was a set of Fostoria Christmas ornaments. I told her just last Christmas that I still had them and used them every year, always thinking of her when I unwrapped them.

We kept talking about needing to get together again, but like so many things, we waited too long. Rest well, Karen.

"Karen and I were also first cousins . She was a funny , loving person that I was honored to have known . For a while , we emailed each other almost every day. She used to call me the good looking one..... I wish now I'd have taken the two mile drive just to say "Hi" in person . Rest well, " Cuz" !
