Kathleen, From the time I was a small child, my parents were fiends with you and Norman. Daddy liked to tell the story of the five of us going to Washington, DC on a bus. I must have been about two. I remember "Pepper", the most wonderful dog, ever. Mother and daddy used to go to your house and play cards. Your family has been part of our family forever. Our families are back together now. I will miss seeing you at the beauty shop on Thursdays. What great friends our families were. Love you so much, Lexie Riggs Hanket

I won't forget you grandma, i hope you're flying in the clouds with grandpa. Not a lot of people take care of themselves enough to reach age 95. i won't forget visiting the few times i was allowed.

*I remember Kathleen Melott growing up in Center Street in Moundsville when I went to her home as a little boy to play with Adrian. One memory of some 60 years ago was her making popcorn for Adrian and I to sell on Friday night door to door. She was a very nice lady. I'm sorry for your loss Adrian.
