“ My condolences to the family and many friends of Kay. She was a beautiful person inside and out. Even in her darkest days her concern for her family was foremost in her mind. We have been best friends since Jr. High, we might not see each other for a long time but when we met it was like we had just seen each other the day before. Love that lady more than I can say. Rest well Kay, your job here is done.

“ I was blessed to have Kay as a friend. She taught me many things over the years. Her faith never wavered in all that she endured. Everytime I'm in the bank where Kay worked my memories go back to when my husband and I would love to talk to Kay and the girls. We would call it our therapy. I'll always miss you, Kay.

“ To Lyle and family - Larry & I are so very sorry to hear of Kay's passing. Anyone who ever met Kay knows she was a beautiful lady, but you had only to just look into her eyes to also see her shining, loving soul. I didn't know her long before she became ill, but I feel so blessed to that Kay considered me one of her friends. I told her that every time I saw a cardinal, I would stop & say a prayer for her. I will continue to do that. My heart and prayers to her family. Kay will be sorely missed and not forgotten.

God Bless - Larry & Becky Moore

“ So very sorry to read of Kay's passing. Kay and I first became acquainted back in the days of Praise Fellowship. Kay always had a smile to greet everyone. Through the years her smile never went away. No matter where I saw her that wonder smile and warm greeting was always present. I have moved from the area, but the memory of Kay will always be with me. Thank you Lord for wonderful people like Kay.
My sincere condolences to the entire family.

“ Roger and I knew, Kay was a special lady and sister in Christ and friend. She will be missed, but she left good memories for her family and that will sustain you! May God give you all much strength in the days ahead. Knowing Kay is in her heavenly home and whole again brings much comfort to my heart and may it do so to each of you!! Kay was saved by faith believing in Jesus Christ death on a cross for us and in His resurrection so we could have Eternal Life to those who would believe repent and receive Jesus into their heart and that is what Kay would want for all her family who have not been saved, ( Think about this) so you will see Kay again one day as we will! Praying for all the family!
