“ Ronda,
I am soooo sorry for your loss. I know you are truly heartbroken and my heart just breaks for you and the kids. May God wrap his loving arms around you and bring you some kind of peace and comfort. I only met Keith a couple of times and to me he seemed like a great person. All my love and many prayers, “ Keith was a neighbor and childhood friend. My brother, Jerry, Jennifer Powell, and I used to play together in the neighborhood. We were always outside together. Keith and Jerry were always pretending they were Evil Kinevil on their bikes, building ramps and jumping off things. We played many baseball and kickball games in our back yard. I will always remember him fondly. Prayers of comfort for the family. May Keith rest in peace.
RaDonna
