“ My name is Ron Jones. I attended Belmont Tech with Kenny, when we shared rides and helped each other with our school. Very smart man. He also helped me land my job at West Point Products, where I worked for 27 1/2 years. I owe you a lot, my friend. You left me with a lot of good memories R.I.P. Kenny

“ Being 7 years older, I remember my cute 'little cousin' Kenny from the many family visits during our childhood. Then after college I moved away to Florida and our only connection was through phone calls to his mom, my wonderful 'crazy Aunt Mary'. Fortunately, a few years back, we re-connected when I attended his niece Heather's wedding in Annapolis, Md. I was impressed at the kind, considerate man he had become. He spent over an hour early one morning walking the streets of the town with me searching for an open drug store where I could get medicine for a migraine. I was thrilled when he and Janis moved back to Moundsville and I could see him whenever I came back home. I will certainly miss my 'little cousin' and wish we could have spent more time together. Rest in Peace Kenny. LynnMaureen
