“ Kevin , Vinny Fiori, myself, and Tommy ventura were the four musketeers growing up. Basketball at memorial every day after school, Friday dances, and him always coming by the house. I remember he always called my mom , mom. I will miss him very much and am so sad to hear this. He was truly a great friend growing up. I reconnected with so many people on face book and tried hard to locate Kev but failed. Well Kev, love ya buddy and please rest in peace. Your pal, Stevo!!!!

Had a contagious laugh and smile. Thoroughly Irish. Hope you and Tommy Milligan are having a couple beers and shots of Jameson . Hearing about your passing brought me back to the fall days in Memorial Park playing football, Winer and summer playing basketball and spring and summer playing baseball. Friday night Tar Heel football games. Will celebrate your life with a Harp and Jameson. We all had an impact on our young lives and friendship dear friend. “ Back at HHS, I fulfilled a commission. I was a painter of acrylics. Jefferson Starship's "Red Octopus" was what Kevin wanted for his van's wheel cover.

He got what he wanted and his van was cool!

I just thought if him 2 days ago.

Rest in Peace.

So sad to hear of this...I have so many fond memories of Kevin. He was always looking out for me and was a loyal friend as we ran around Maywood and Hackensack together. Whenever I think of all the fun I had from those days Kevin's smile and contagious laugh stands out. I had always hoped I would see him again. Gone too soon. My deepest sympathy to all his family and friends.
